BANK!

I am so glad you are in my family's lives. Professionally, you have brought my boys out of their shells (ok, they were both hems before they met you). Personally, your friendship to each of us enriches our homes, and this includes Omar, Ella & Floppy! I respect you so much for your work ethic, your patience, and your love for theater. For this and for the community I'm glad you were hired at SCC.

I love you dearly for your thoughtfulness and for your edge. You are a beautiful friend.

Much love,

Jessica,

You are one of the most inspiring ladies I have ever met. You are one of the reasons Theatre is still alive and well. Most of all, you brought the magic of Theatre to this art-deprived school. You've pulled students from the halls to the stage and made them into stars.

You helped shape me into a better actor, but also ~~as~~ a better person. In the past year that I've known you, I have become more confident, more articulate, and more responsible. I feel like I can do anything. I'll be sure to mention you ~~in~~ when I accept my first Tony. I know that wherever I go, I'll be a "Success." Just like Shakespeare said, "All the World's a Stage."

It's been so much fun working backstage and helping out the stage crew! Megan and I have been writing down the hilarious things we hear and they give us a good chuckle every time.

"You're the designer, I'm just the teacher" - Jess (4-9-16)

"This role is sad... sad" - Jess (4-9-16)

"Where's the baby?!?" - everyone

"Don't Forget your baby" - Jess (4-8-16)

"Not today eastern" - Megan (4-8-16)

This has been the best experience out of all the shows I've done here with you. You know how I feel about you and what you do here, so I just say..... You are a wildly talented director and teacher who knows the importance of being a committed professional. One day when I'm a successful working actor with a famous name, I'll look back on the time I've shared with you with a full heart and smile.

Thank you for giving me the space to do what I love and share my gifts in a beautiful and compassionate atmosphere.

I admire and respect you and what you're doing humbly and greatly. Building a theater program from nearly scratch by pretty much yourself is an arduous task but I believe in my heart you have the passion, talent and tenacity to achieve this. It may take some time but it will be well worth it when people are lining up to see shows at SUNY Sullivan.

Thank you for entrusting me with the role of thourmet and giving me the opportunity to do what I love and further develop my craft as an actor. Thank you for your guidance, patience and being kind while coaching me, helping me develop this character to a beautiful place.

I've definitely never met or worked with a director or person quite like you. I am constantly in AWE of how how much knowledge you possess or how much you LITERALLY do for these students, this art form, and this community!

Professional Company or not, playing this role in this musical will absolutely go down as one of the greatest roles I've played in my entire career, going back to 2003.

I hope I do it justice and make people feel what I feel on stage.

Happy Opening Director ☺

Doss,

It has been an honor to be apart of this RAGTIME company! Honestly, I didn't know what to expect with taking on a show of this magnitude, but this has been and turned out to be an incredibly beautiful, humbling and rewarding experience.

And to get to do this with my dad, sharing his talents and gifts makes it extra special. Thank-you.

I have enjoyed so much witnessing other young actors learn and grow on stage as we all have so fucking loved on this for the past three months. It's finally showing!

All I want to do is work on my craft and keep getting better and growing as an actor, singer and performer.

Well, this role, is truly a dream role and has allowed me to grow and stretch so much as an actors and more so vocally as a singer, which I didn't know I was good enough to sing this part.

Thank you for continuing to push me past what I think I'm capable of. I'm so humbled, grateful and honored to be playing Teatek and to be directed by you on our third production is a wow!

Thank you for all you do for all of us, There is no way any of us could repay you for your insane dedication and commitment to making this theater program and community better and richer in every way!
